FOREWORD

It was neither my intention, nor would it have been possible for me to write a comprehensive account of every significant family group, so I offer no apology for the way I have written the Tuohey Family History. Where information has been offered or accessible to me, I have included such material.

Public records, family documents and newspapers have provided me with valuable information about the Tuohey brothers - Thomas and Patrick and their wives - Mary (Fahey) & Mary (Conroy) from the time of their arrival to Port Phillip, Victoria in the late 1850's until their eventual settlement as early pioneers in North Eastern Victoria - at Toolleen and Myola /Mt Pleasant respectively, after a period on the Sandhurst goldfields.

Many hours over a couple of years were spent in the State Library of Victoria reading the local newspapers, particularly The Elmore Standard and the Rushworth Chronicle, in order to have a sense of the times and major events surrounding them. I have attempted to recreate an account of the environment and lifestyle of my own grandparents built around my own knowledge and experiences, so that my descendants can be afforded a glimpse of the past. My mother, Julia (Tuohey) Wade engendered in me a strong sense of family through her interesting and enlightening accounts about her relatives. She was a great story teller and always held a very receptive and captive audience, although in later years, she often chided me for writing down snippets of information as she talked.

My account will have closer focus on my family line rather than on my grandfather Laurence Tuohey's kinfolk. I invite other Tuohey family descendants to rework and refine my modest attempt where I have not done justice to their forebears, or have given incorrect information.

Care must be exercised in distinguishing between the family groups of Thomas and Patrick as both family groups shared common christian names:-

TUOHEYS FROM COUNTY GALWAY.

THOMAS TUOHEY was the first brother of the two Tuohey brothers to arrive in Australia from County Galway. There may have been other family members, but this account concerns only these two - THOMAS & PATRICK.

THOMAS & PATRICK TUOHEY
SONS OF
LAWRENCE & MARY (Flanagan) TUOHEY
County Galway, Ireland.

THOMAS TUOHEY (1831*1898) arrived Port Phillip on "Ben Nevis" 31-8-1857.

PATRICK TUOHEY (1834*1905) arrived Port Phillip on "Eagle" 31-3-1859.

It had been said that they were orphaned as schoolboys, and that they arrived home one day to find their parents gone- presumably taken away and executed. They were not found to be buried in any known cemetery. The boys who were aged about twelve and fourteen years were taken in by an elderly couple who apparently lived near a lake or maybe on an island within a lake or loch. Family members had been told that the boys used to row the elderly couple across the water to daily Mass.

One family researcher suggests that Lawrence Tuohey and his wife Mary Flanagan (the parents of Thomas and Patrick Tuohey) may not have been victims of foul-play or intrigue, but victims of the Plague. This would account for the parents not being found to be buried in any known cemetery.

Thomas Tuohey arrived in Port Phillip on the 31st. August 1857, and it is not known what his movements were until he engaged in mining on the Sandhurst (Bendigo) goldfields where he was joined by his younger brother Patrick and possibly other family members.

In 1865, the two brothers Thomas & Patrick were married at St Kilian's Church, Sandhurst (Bendigo) by the Reverend Father Edward O'Dwyer, to Mary Fahey and Mary Conroy, respectively. The two couples all hailed from County Galway. Both men were bachelors and their occupation -miner. Both women were spinsters and each registered their employment as servant. All were residents of Sandhurst at the time.

One interesting finding was that the surname of the mothers of both women was TUOHY/TUOHEY. Mary Fahey's mother was formerly HANNORAH TUOHY. The maiden name of the mother of Mary Conroy was MARY TUOHEY.

The Tuohey brothers took up land on the Mt. Pleasant Creek, in the Parish of Campaspe in the late 1960's. Thomas later resided permanently at Toolleen, and Patrick remained at Mt. Pleasant (often called Campaspe or Myola). Campaspe is also the name of the Parish.

Neither Thomas nor Patrick were literate, education being a very scarce commodity in Ireland in the early part of the 19th. Century. From illiterate, or barely literate beginnings, the descendants of these humble or dispossessed Irish folk have a strong representation across the range of professions, and can even claim an Associate Professor, two Doctors of Philosophy, a distinguished Redemptorist Priest (a missionary in the Phillipines in the early 1900's), and many teachers (including several members of religious orders). Some descendants even continue to farm on the original land holdings of Thomas and Patrick.

There are various spellings of the name, and the Gaelic spelling of the name would be the only correct one. On documents the name has been variously Tuohy/Twohy/Toohey/Twohey/Touhey/Touhay. On the Schedule A - Application for a License to occupy Crown Lands under the 42nd. Section of "The Amending Land Act 1865", (2nd. April 1868) Patrick Tuohey (his mark X) is spelt TUHY. On Section 31, "Land Act 1869", (15th. June 1872) his surname is TWOHY, and on 19-12-1872, the W is crossed out and the surname is TUOHY. The Office of Lands and Survey, Deeds Division sought clarification of the correct spelling -23-5-1876: and the accepted spelling in his reply was Tuohey.

O'Tuohy, Twohig, O'Towey, Tuffly.

Woulfe makes the definite statement that the sept of O'Tuathalgh is a branch of the Ui Maine, formerly seated at Aughrim, Co. Galway. They are not mentioned in The Tribes and Customs of Hy Many or in O'Donovan's notes thereto. It is a fact that families called Tuohy, Touhy, Twohy etc. are for the most part now to be found in Clare and south-east Galway. Co. Galway is missing from the census of 1659: that enumeration places them chiefly in Co. Tipperary - in Kilmanagh and Owey and Arra, the baronies adjacent to Thomond. It is Co. Tipperary, too that the name appears most frequently in seventeenth and eighteenth century documents such as Hearth Money rolls, leases, court cases and the like. Already by the middle of the sixteenth century it had become quite numerous in Co. Cork too. There the form Twohig is now used in English ...Patrick J. Twohey (b.1865), a notable piper was the son and grandson of Co. Galway men, also pipers of note, who, however, according to O'Neill's Irish Minstrels and Musicians bore the name of Twohill in English. I have not met another example of Twohill (i.e. O Tuathail or O'Toole) being changed to Touhey or Tuohy. Twohill is usually found in Co. Cork. Dr. Charles Tuohy was Bishop of Limerick from 1814 to 1828.

SHIPPING RECORD "Ben Nevis"- THOMAS TUOHEY -Arrived 1857. P.R.O.V.]

THOMAS TUOHEY (C1832*6-8-1898)

THOMAS TUOHEY:Port Phillip on"BEN NEVIS"-1857.

Thomas left Liverpool on the "Ben Nevis" on the 28th. May 1857 with 409 other passengers for a voyage of 140 days. The Ship's Master was William Herron. Thomas was possibly travelling with three other companions. His age was 24 years. His occupation was described as Farmer. He arrived in Port Phillip on the 31st. August 1857, and it is not known what his movements were at this time. He later engaged in mining on the Sandhurst gold-fields where he was joined by his younger brother Patrick two years later in 1859.

THOMAS TUOHEY Married MARY FAHEY -23-5-1865.

Thomas Tuohey (28years) married Mary Fahey (22 years) daughter of Thomas Fahey (occupation Farmer) and Hannorah Tuohey, at St Kilian' Church, Sandhurst on 23rd of May 1865. The celebrant was the Rev. Father Edward O'Dwyer, and the witnesses were John Tuohy and Bridget Mannix. The Victorian Birth, Death and Marriage Registration Number was 1805, and the Church Register number was 805. All parties were from County Galway. Mary Fahey and the witness Bridget Mannix were able to sign their own names. The others were only able to make their own mark (X).

Thomas and Mary resided in Sandhurst until the Tuohey brothers applied for Licences to occupy Crown Land under the Acts of 1865. McCrae Street, Sandhurst was the early address given for the two brothers. It was here that a child from each family - Mary Ann and Thomas died possibly from diphtheria, aged one year in 1868. Thomas & Mary took up land in the Campaspe region in the late 1860's, and later settled at "Erindale" Toolleen where they farmed until their deaths in 1898 and 1912 respectively.

MARY FAHEY Arrived Colony 1862.

According to Mary's Death Notice, Mary was a native of County Galway, and arrived in the Colony of Victoria in 1862, aged about 19 years. Mary was a relatively well educated woman, and her services were in high demand from family and neighbours in reading, writing letters and filling in forms, to name some of her abilities. Letters from Ireland were also very infrequent and were occasions for great rejoicing and celebration. News that a letter had arrived would be spread throughout the family and close friends like wild-fire, and the whole community would assemble for the reading. Undoubtedly, many a song was sung and many a story told into the early hours. [Information per Dr. Patrick Tuohey]

Thomas and Mary Tuohy lived at "Erindale", Toolleen, and Patrick and Mary Tuohy at "Fairfield", Mt. Pleasant/Myola/Campaspe. The two brothers would meet regularly halfway between the two districts, by walking towards each other, and spend a pleasant day reminiscing over old times in Ireland as young men, and in Bendigo on the gold-fields. As the day wore on, they would make their peace and walk towards their respective homes, still talking to each other furiously. Just when out of ear-shot, they would start walking back towards each other to continue the conversation. This procedure continued back and forward until darkness made the final parting inevitable.

Thomas and Mary reared a family of five daughters and five sons. Two sons Thomas and Joseph died in infancy, 1866 and 1883 respectively.

(R.B.M.D.V.)

DEATH NOTICES - MARY & THOMAS TUOHEY.

THOMAS TUOHEY: (6-8-1898) at 1am. aged 67 years.

Toolleen: Wednesday August 10. Obituary:- One of the oldest and most respected residents of this district, Mr. Thomas Tuohey, joined the great majority at 1am. on Saturday, and was interred in the Runnymede Cemetery on Sunday. The deceased, who was 67 years of age, had suffered from cancer for about 12 months, and for some time had been under the care of the late Dr. Gray of your own town. The funeral was very lengthy, fully 90 vehicles and 50 horsemen taking part. The Rev. Father Moore read the burial service very impressively, and the mortuary arrangements were attended to by Mr Fizelle, of Bendigo. The deceased leaves a large family, most of whom are grown up. _____ The Elmore Standard Aug. 12 1898. _____

Cypress: Mrs Tuohey. Once again the grim hand of Death has visited the Toolleen district, and carried off one of the oldest most highly respected residents, in the person of Mrs. Tuohey, relict of the late Thomas Tuohey, the sad event occurring on Thursday, 6th. inst., at her late residence, "Erindale". The deceased lady, who had attained her 69th. year, was a native of Co. Galway, Ireland, and emigrated to this country in 1862, thus being a colonist of 30 years. After a few years, she married her late husband (who preceded her 14 years ago), and settled on the Bendigo goldfields for some few years. They then joined the land-seekers and took up property on Mt. Pleasant Creek, and by combined and assiduous labor, eventually succeeded in accumulating a comfortable home. The late Mrs. Tuohey commenced to break up some months ago, and despite all that medical care, accelerated by kind and careful nursing lavished upon her by a loving family could do, she passed away as above stated, the recipient of all earthly consolation. The deceased lady during her residence of more than 40 years in the Toolleen district gained a large circle of friends, to whom she was everready to lend a helping hand. In the sweet cause of charity, her efforts were ever to the fore, and her death has cast an intense gloom over the whole neighbourhood, for she was a good mother, a true benefactor, and a sterling trustworthy friend. A family of five daughters and three sons (three of whom are married) survive to mourn a sad and irreparable loss. Her funeral to the Runnymede Cemetery took place on Saturday, the 8th. inst., and was one of the largest ever seen in the district. Her remains which were enclosed in a magnificent oak coffin, were borne to the grave by Messrs. L. Tuohey, M. Tuohey, T. Tuohey, and M. Comer, three nephews and a fast friend of the deceased, Rev. Father Ryan read the burial service, and Mr. Mulqueen carried out the funeral arrangements in his usual efficient manner. _____ The Elmore Standard June 29 - 1912. _____

Mary Ann and Nora nursed older people at their home in 13 Hopetoun Street, Bendigo over many years. Mary Green (Cunneen) was one of the many people for whom Mary Ann and Nora lovingly and devotedly cared, when Mary Green's sons were no longer able to manage her care and their farm.

I recall Nora as being a very sweet and gentle person. She perhaps was a woman before her time with her aptitude for caring for older people, her skilled nursing ability, together with her genuine concern for others: a truly christian woman. My grandmother Margaret Tuohey held Nora in very high regard. Nora and Kate frequently visited my grandmother at our home in the latter debilitating and housebound years of her life.

Nora was Godmother to her niece, Nora Patricia Erwin, daughter of Nellie & Charles Erwin in 1915, and also to her niece Catherine Teresa Tuohey, daughter of Patrick & Catherine (Quirk) Tuohey in 1918.

The Elmore Standard Sept 2 1905: Runnymedian Revels- Tinkettlers have a night out! (The tin-kettling epidemic appears to have made its appearance in the peaceful latitudes of Runnymede East.....A large crowd of desperados mustered in the solitudes of Mt Pleasant Creek, at moonrise, a few nights ago intent on dispersing the Spirit of Peace, whose pinions, lay softly o'er the land!.....For a Tin kettling - such things as cow bells, kerosine tins, mouth organs are used.After about ten minutes of spirit-scaring Chinese music had been dispersed round the domestic shrine of the assailed couple, Mr Harry Carmody, victim-in-chief, opened his mansion door, extending a cordial invitation to the vandals to "step inside!"...After the souls of the grapes, as embodied in the contents of the decanter, had been done full justice to by some, and the modest, yet exhilarating virtues of the coffee-bean had been enthused overby others, to accompaniments of cake, &C., the healths of Mrs. and Mr. Carmody were drunk with musical honors...(hours later) After another gargle to the honor of the house...all were homeward bound their several ways, as jolly and contented as could be after their novel and peaceful "night out!"

MARRIAGE

On Wednesday, the 11th. inst, the marriage of Miss Kate Quirk, youngest daughter of Mr. M. Quirk, Cornella, with Mr. P. J. Tuohey, second son of Mrs. Tuohey, and the late Mr. Thomas Tuohey, Toolleen, took place at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Heathcote. Nuptial Mass was celebrated, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Father O'Dea. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in a dress of creme embroidered milk voile, trimmed with white satin, appliqued overnet, and accordion pleated chiffon, the skirt being neatly finished with ruched ribbon and flounces. She wore the usual accompaniments, wreath and veil. The bridesmaids were Misses Kate and Nellie Tuohey (sisters of the bridegroom). The former wore a pretty dress of creme chalys voile, trimmed with Paris overnet, insertion and chiffon with a black picture hat. The latter was neatly attired in a dress of grey chalys voile, trimmed with Paris overnet and silk edging, with a white chip straw hat, trimmed with chiffon, ribbon and flowers. The skirt in each case was nicely finished with French hems, ruched ribbon and insertion. Mr. M. McEvoy, acted as best man. After the ceremony the wedding party, consisting of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, drove to Miss Farley's Union Hotel, where the wedding dejeuner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Tuohey left by the mid-day train, en route to the Golden City. The bride's travelling dress was a grey voile eton costume, with blue silk and overnet vest, with hat to match. Showers of rice were hurled at them, mingled with the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness and prosperity. A variety of valuable and costly presents were received, including a number of substantial cheques.

The Elmore Standard - October 1905

According to his grandson Dr. Patrick Tuohey, Patrick (Sandy) enjoyed a good time. At one time, there was a bout of plague going around the district (Toolleen) and nobody would volunteer to bury the corpses, except for Patrick and his mate, Jim Carmody. The Carmody's and the Tuohey's were neighbours in Myola over many years.

Patrick (Sandy) was frequently visited in Bendigo by my father Joe Wade because he enjoyed his company.

Kath Harney told me that her brothers Pat and Laurie Healy bumped into Patrick (Doull), his wife Mercia and Lilian Lyons as they were walking along Swanston Street during the crowded Eucharistic Congress March in the city in the 1930's. They were both surprised and delighted to find one another in such a dense crowd.

Dr. Patrick Tuohey related an anecdotal story of his father, (3rd. generation) Patrick Tuohey. Patrick (Doull) was a bit of a lair. One day as his young brother Larry was walking past the house, he sang out: 'Come and help me this minute.' Larry obediently went over to where Doull was bending over his hat on the ground. 'I've got a baby bird under the hat,' he said, 'when I lift the hat, you grab the bird and make sure it doesn't fly away.' Doull hovered for a second to ensure that Larry was in place, then he lifted the hat quickly and ran like hell. Needless to say, Larry grabbed a large, fresh deposit recently left behind by the family cow.

Quoting from "A Tribute to Toolleen" Page 26 re school - " until the Crosbie School building was ready to house pupils on its new Toolleen site, Messrs. Thos Tuohey and Thos Henderson, each in turn, sought to gather school requisites so badly needed while school was being held in the Church." This was just one of the many indications on how our early pioneers valued education for their children. Another excerpt demonstrates just how they dealt with unruly students in those times " there was a small gallery in the old school at Crosbie and it remained intact when moved to Toolleen; the youngest scholars sat on these elevated seats and beneath them was a closed-in dark space. A small door opened into the space, and through it troublesome scholars were sometimes pushed to endure solitary confinement."

An Inquest (Document No 618) was held on 23rd June 1884 regarding his death. I am including statements from the proceedings. Firstly the statement of his grieving and loving mother who had tried her best to treat her critically ill child but could not save him from death.

I, Mary Tuohey on oath saith as follows I am the mother of the deceased Joseph Tuohey aged 15 months. On Tuesday evening the 17th inst the deceased was taken ill as I thought with a simple cold. He had a cough and I applied poultices to the throat and chest & gave him castor oil twice on Friday. He got worse and died on Saturday afternoon. I had no medical advice, no doctor being near. The scalded part visible on the back was caused by bran poultices - the nearest doctor resides 18 miles away.- Signed Mary Tuohey. Taken and sworn before me at Sandhurst this 23rd. day of June 1884 - A Wilton J.P.

Further note from A Wilton J.P. :- I have this day held a Magisterial Enquiry touching the death of the infant - Joseph Tuohey and from the evidence adduced am of the opinion that death was caused from pneumonia or inflammation of the lungs ___Signed A Wilton J.P. Sandhurst 23rd. June 1884.

The Report by Sergeant Fahey of the Victoria Police, North Western Police District, Sandhurst Station on the 23rd. June 1884 states that relative to the death of Joseph Tuohey, I have to report for the information of the Deputy Coroner that the above named a child of 15 months old, died on the 22nd. inst. under the following circumstances:- it appears that the deceased was ailing since the 18th. apparently teething. No medical man being resident in the vicinity of where the parents resided, Toolleen. The child was being conveyed to Sandhurst for medical aid but died before reaching the latter place.

I may add that there were no suspicious circumstances connected with the death. The child was in charge of its father and mother at the time. The body is now at a friend's place near the Bricklayers Arms Hotel, Bridge Street awaiting an Inquiry. ___Signed Patrick Fahey

[NOTE: The Police Sergeant Patrick Fahey shared the same surname as Mary (Fahey) Tuohey. Could there have been some relationship?]

Dr O Penfold - I Oliver Penfold on oath saith as follows I am a legally qualified medical practitioner residing in Sandhurst. I have this day made a post mortem examination of the body of Joseph Tuohey found the body well nourished. There was a scald upon the skin of the middle of left back about two inches square probably caused by the application of a too hot poultice. The right lung was shrunken and covered with curly lymph the result of inflammation, and the left lung was commencing to be similarly effected. The stomach was empty. The other organs health - the cause of death was pneumonia or inflammation of the lungs. ___Signed O Penfold.

SHIPPING RECORD - "Eagle" - PATRICK TUOHEY - Arrived 1859.

[P.R.O.V.]

PATRICK TUOHEY (1834 * 31-7-1905)

PATRICK TUOHEY: Port Phillip on "Eagle"-1859.

Patrick arrived to Port Phillip on the "Eagle"- 31-3-1859, after leaving Liverpool on the 18-12-1858. Captain Murphy was the ship's Master with 174 passengers on board. Patrick was also described as a Farmer and was aged 25 years. He was said to have been travelling with three male friends. Family members have related that Michael Cunneen was instrumental in the Tuohey brothers coming to Victoria.

PATRICK TUOHEY married MARY CONROY - 1865.

Patrick Tuohey (27 years) married Mary Conroy (21 years) the daughter of Michael Conroy (occupation Labourer) and Mary Tuohey at St. Kilian's Church, Sandhurst on 6-2-1865. The celebrant was the Reverend Father Edward O'Dwyer, and the witnesses were Thomas Tuohey and Mary ?Tuohy/Conroy (her X mark). The Victorian Birth Death and Marriage Registration number 685, and the Register number was 864 in the Parish of St. Kilian's and the district of Sandhurst. The parents of Patrick were Laurence Tuohey (occupation Labourer) and Mary nee Flanagan of County Galway.

There are various spellings of the name, and Gaelic spelling of the name would be the only correct one. On documents the name has been variously recorded as - Tuohy/Twohy/Twohy/Toohey/Toohey/Twohey/Touhey/Touhay/Tuhy. The recorder wrote the name as it sounded. In the early 1860's, the Lands Department sought clarification of the correct spelling of the name lodged for a Land Grant in the name of Patrick Tuohy. and the spelling acceptable to Patrick was TUOHEY.

Patrick Tuohey/Tuohy occupied Allotments - 99,100,101 and 102 from May 1868. The Mounted Police Constable for the District lodged a Report to the Assistant Commissioner of Lands and Survey, Melbourne, with information about fencing, description of same, and also of dwelling; extent of land cleared and cultivated; any improvements (water etc.); and if the occupier was the bona fide resident. Mounted Constable Wearing 1535 or 1335 lodged the undated document (? 1872).

He describes the holding as having 53 acres of heavily timbered country cleared and cropped with wheat. The dwellings had been erected about four years and were classed as good. The buildings were - a barn with log sides and a bark roof, 26 ft.x 12 ft.; a bark and log dairy, 12 ft.x 12 ft.; a house 20 ft.x 12 ft. slabs of bark roof- of two rooms; and a piggery of split stuff, 15 ft.x 20 ft., 5 rails with 4 divisions.

The garden around the house was one chain square, with a close vertical sapling fence. The cattle yard was chock and log, one chain square, and the milking yard was 45 ft.x 45 ft., of split stuff.

The fencing- the east side of the property was fenced, 14 chains on the south side, two lines of doglegged fence across the allotment from north to south, and 200 panels of 3 - rail split fence along the creek on the west side. The fencing was described as good The east side chock and log, South side chock and log. Cross fences doglegged. West side ordinary split fence, erected about three years.

These descriptions indicate that Patrick (maybe with some helpers), or perhaps just even the two brothers) must have had to work laboriously felling trees in heavily timbered country. Timbers in the district were stringy bark, ironbark, eucalypts, grey box, and possibly she-oaks, just to name a few. Patrick left his family behind in Bendigo during the early developmental stages. Living would have been both primitive and simple, with little time reserved for respite. His son Lawrence born 1866, had his early schooling in Bendigo. Possibly Patrick spent around five or six years preparing the family home at Mt. Pleasant. The tools used would have been simple implements for splitting and shaping timber, and long hours of physical toil must have been spent, with little protection from inclement weather or thought of personal comfort. The mind boggles when one thinks about how they acquired food, drink or shelter; or whether they were ever sick, injured, lonely or starving.

We had never heard complaint about what a hard life they had, they just got on with what they had to do. True pioneers and trailblazers. Their ploughs would have been primitive one furrow ploughs with handmade wooden frameworks.

We also learn that Patrick had cows and cattle, pigs, and possibly poultry. The close sapling fence would have served a twofold purpose- to confine, and to keep out marauders. Fences were vital in such dense bush to protect small children, and to prevent poultry and stock from wandering away.

Bank's description of Patrick Tuohey.

From all accounts Patrick had a reddish beard and solid build, and his physical description, the name of the ship on which he arrived (The "Eagle"), and his address at Mt Pleasant, Campaspe were used as a form of identification at the Union Bank, because he could only make his mark (X).

PATRICK TUOHEY (1834 * 1905)

DEATH NOTICE - PATRICK TUOHEY: (31-7-1905) aged 71 years.

Obituary: It is with regret that we have to record the death of one of the oldest and most highly respected district residents, in the person of Mr. Patrick Tuohey, which took place suddenly at his residence, Mt. Pleasant Creek, on Monday, the 31st. ult. He had been in his usual health and spirits, and had even performed some light duties during the day, and at night, while supervising the loading of some wheat, he suddenly complained of a pain, and was helped into bed. Available remedies were applied, but without effect, and he expired in about twenty minutes. Deceased, who had attained the advanced age of 71 years, was a native of County Galway, Ireland, and came to this country in 1859, at the request of his late brother, who predeceased him seven years ago. He settled on the gold-fields of Bendigo, where he prospered, and in July 1863, he selected land on Mt. Pleasant Creek, where he resided till the time of his death. He afterwards purchased large holdings thereby accumulating a large amount of property. The news of his sad and gloomy demise cast an intense gloom over the whole locality, as he was an especial favourite, and by his kind and jovial demeanour had gained the respect and esteem of everyone with whom he came in contact, as was evidenced by the large concourse of people that assembled to pay the last tribute of respect by attending the funeral. The cortege consisted of the hearse, two mourning coaches, 102 vehicles, and about 20 horsemen. The remains which were enclosed in a beautiful oak coffin, were borne to the grave by Messrs. L. J. Tuohey, P. J. Tuohey, (Nephews of deceased), J. J. Tuohey, and M. Comer. The burial service was impressively read by the Rev. Fr. Rooney, and the funeral arrangements were in the hands of Messrs. Fizzle and Mulqueen. Deceased leaves a widow, four sons, and four daughters, all grown up, to mourn their sad and untimely loss. His youngest son is in the Redemptorist Monastery, Ballarat, studying for the priesthood. Universal sympathy is felt for them in their sad bereavement.

SHIPPING RECORD: "Great Australia".
Mary Conroy arrived Port Phillip - 1862. [P.R.O.V.]

NOTE: Mary Conroy travelled with Daniel (21yrs,a Labourer), Elizabeth (25),and Ann (19) HEALY. The Healy's were entry 6384, and Mary Conroy was 6385. Dan Healy's son Denis married Mary Conroy's daughter Bridget Tuohey, and is the grandfather of Kath Harney. Ann Healy's grand daughter Mary Stanworth married Mary Conroy's grandson, Gerard Hillman.

MARY CONROY (1843 * 1907)

Mary Conroy left Liverpool 25-4-1862 on the "Great Australia" with 514 other passengers on a voyage of 140 days to Port Phillip, arriving Melbourne on 16th. September 1862. She was aged 18 years. The ship's Master was named Baker. 325 of the passengers were from Ireland.

Mary was the daughter of Michael Conroy (occupation - Labourer) and Mary Toohey of County Galway. Mary's occupation was recorded as Servant, and she was most probably employed as a servant for the three years prior to her marriage to Patrick Tuohy at St. Kilians Church, Sandhurst in 1865.

Until Patrick had cleared the land and provided a home for his family at Mt. Pleasant (later called Myola) Mary possibly shared accommodation with relatives in McCrea Street, Sandhurst for five or six years. The family of her fourth child Thomas believe that he was the first child in the family to be born at Mt. Pleasant (Thomas was born in 1872). Documents related to the three older children confirm this belief.

Mary and Patrick earned respect and a deep bond of affection with their children and grandchildren through their keen sense of humour, and because of their deep understanding of human foibles and individual weakness. They were not afraid to exercise discipline when this was required. Kath Harney related that her mother ("Bidsy", Bridget) was often sent down to the creek to find a willow switch for a parent to apply discipline to Patrick in particular. They also attempted to give their children opportunities that were not possible for themselves.

Cypress: Mrs. Patrick Tuohey. Once again it is our sad and unpleasant duty to record the death of another of the old and respected residents of this district, in the person of Mrs. Patrick Tuohey, which took place at her residence, Mt. Pleasant Creek, on Friday, the 11th. inst., at the advanced age of 64 years. Deceased who was always of healthy, cheery disposition, contracted rheumatism some months ago, and despite all that medical aid, assisted by careful attention lavished on her by a devoted family and kind friends, she gradually sank and passed away as stated. The late Mrs. Tuohey was a native of County Galway, Ireland, and emigrated to this country in 1863. Two years afterwards she married the late Mr. Tuohey, who predeceased her a little more than two years ago. They resided on the Bendigo goldfields until 1868, when they removed to Mt. Pleasant Creek, where they took up land and afterwards increased their holdings, and succeeded in making a very comfortable home. The deceased lady was very highly esteemed by all with whom she came in contact, as was evidenced by the large concourse of people who assembled to pay the last tribute of respect. Her funeral which consisted of the hearse, two mourning coaches, over 100 vehicles, and a number of horsemen, was one of the largest that ever left the district. The remains, which were enclosed in a beautiful oak coffin, were borne to their last resting place, in the Runnymede Cemetery, by Messrs. L. J. Tuohey, P. J. Tuohey, J. Tuohey and M. Comer. The Rev. Father Rooney, who preceded the hearse to the grave, conducted the burial service most impressively. Messrs. Fizelle and Mulqueen carried out the funeral arrangements with all possible satisfaction. Universal sympathy is felt for the family of four sons and four daughters, who are left to mourn their sad and irreparable loss of a good and devoted mother, more so on account of having been deprived of both parents within a short time. The youngest son, Patrick, is at present in Ireland studying for the Priesthood.

_____The Elmore Standard- October 26 1907._____

Mary and Patrick are both buried in Runnymede Cemetery. They have a Celtic cross on the top of an obelisk erected over an above ground stone surrounded by an ornate cast iron fence. The inscription reads:- 'Sacred to the memory of Patrick Tuohey who died at Mt.Pleasant 31st. July 1905 aged 71 years.'

'Mary Tuohey relict of above who died at Mt. Pleasant 11th. October 1907 aged 64 years.'

At the foot of the cross is the Motto-' Gloria in Excelsis Deo' above a harp emblem encircled by stars, with a spray of shamrocks on each side.

NOTE: John James (Jack Tuohy/Toohey) was son of Michael Tuohy and Ann/e (Flannery) who also lived in McCrae Street Sandhurst, Bendigo about the same years as our kinfolk. Michael (Occupation - Miner) had married Anne at Castlemaine in April 1861. They were both from Co. Galway. This family was said to be unrelated. Jack Tuohy was widowed with three small dependent children in 1871 when Ann died. - Mary (1862), (William (1865) Dec. 1yr., David 1866, and John James (Jack) (1869). Ann (Flannery) Tuohy is buried at White Hills Cemetery with son William.

In April 1873, Michael married a Winifred Tuohy at St. Killian's Church, Sandhurst. Michael's parents were William and Mary (Darmody) Tuohy; and Winifred's parents were Michael and Margaret (Hooban) Tuohy. All were from Co. Galway. Michael could sign his name, but the others could only make their mark (X). The Celebrant was the Rev. Dr. Henry Backhaus.

Were Michael & Ann (Flannery) Tuohy related to our family group? Is the Ann who described herself as Aunt on Mary Ann Tuohy's Birth Registration Certificate this Ann Tuohy? Also is there any relationship with Winifred Tuohy - Michael's second wife? Recent family researchers have focussed on Clonrush Whitegate area in Galway where about forty Tuohy/Touhy family groups had resided.

LAWRENCE TUOHEY (1866 * 1926)

Lawrence Tuohey was born at McCrae Street, Bendigo on 12-2-1866. He was the eldest of nine children, and firstborn son of Patrick and Mary (Conroy) Tuohey. St Kilians Church Sandhurst record No. 5940 states that Lawrence was born on 12th. February 1866 and baptised on 18th. February by Rev. Fr. James B. Hayes. His Godparents were Thomas Tuohy & Bridget Whitney. Patrick was a miner on the Bendigo goldfields, and Lawrence spent his early years living in Bendigo until his father had established the beginnings of a home at Mt. Pleasant. Descriptions from Land documents indicate that the early home was a two roomed bark hut.(possibly with a dirt floor). An eight roomed house was built at a later time.

Lawrence's early education was in Bendigo at a school that was later to become St. Mary's College, where his two daughters and many other relatives spent some years. With his parents he moved to Mt. Pleasant /Myola district. The family of four daughters and four sons grew up and were identified with this, and neighbouring districts.

LAWRENCE TUOHEY MARRIED MARGARET CUNNEEN - 1897.

In 1897 Lawrence Tuohey married Margaret Cunneen, and this was the year he took up residence at Colbinabbin. His father gave him the management of "Fairfields Estate" called "The Mount". A short time later the estate was rearranged and his brother Michael was given a half share. Michael had been managing a creamery at Lake Charm. Michael and his wife Elizabeth came over to live on the property. Family discord surfaced, but resolved itself at a later point in time. It had been said that money was borrowed from Michael Cunneen (Margaret's father) to buy out Michael's share.

ESTABLISHMENT AT COLBINABBIN.

The original farmhouse was reputed to have been built by a Danish man named Peter, who was referred to always as Peter the Dane. The earlier owners were Lindsays who moved out of the district. The house was held together with handmade nails. There was a cellar under the house. The old forge near the house was the original kitchen, and it contained a brick oven. A cow shed at the back of the house was made from bark. The spaces under the eaves of the old barn were designed to contain charcoal. Possibly the purpose was for insulation. There were wooden racks with milk trays on top, and when the milk settled the cream was skimmed off the top. In my youth I recall helping to clean the milk separators. They had to be taken apart and scrupulously cleansed. Not far from the dairy was the killing tree where Uncle Charl, or Uncle Frank killed and butchered the sheep for home use. The offal provided regular feasts for the sheepdogs.

WEDDING: LAWRENCE TUOHEY & MARGARET CUNNEEN -1897.

TUOHEY  CUNNEEN - (Wednesday 19-5-1897).

The wedding of Mr. Lawrence Tuohey, eldest son of Mr. Patrick Tuohey, of Toolleen, and Miss Maggie Cunneen, youngest daughter of Mr. Michael Cunneen, of Runnymede, was celebrated at St. Brigid's Roman Catholic Church, Runnymede, by the Rev. Father Moore, in the presence of a large assemblage. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion by the Misses Revell. The bride, given away by her father, looked charming in a handsome dress of heliotrope figured lustre, trimmed with gimp and lace, with a nicely arranged orange wreath and veil. The bridesmaids were Miss Tuohey, sister of the bridegroom, attired in pale pink lustre, with lace and ribbon trimmings; and Miss Green, niece of the bride, attired in hailspot muslin, with trimmings. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to Elmore, and the newly-wedded couple left by the 5.30 train for Ballarat on their honeymoon. The platform was crowded, and rice &c., was liberally showered on the happy pair, and many wishes expressed for their future happiness. The bride's travelling dress was brown serge, hat to match. The presents to the bride were numerous and handsome. In the evening a splendid tea was provided at the residence of the bride's parents, and a most enjoyable hour or two was afterwards spent in dancing games &c.

_____The Elmore Standard Fri. May 21- 1897._____

An interesting wedding was celebrated on the 19th. inst., at St. Brigid's Roman Catholic Church, Runnymede, the contracting parties being Miss Maggie Cunneen, of Runnymede, and Mr. Lawrence Tuohey, eldest son of Mr. Patrick Tuohey of "Fairfield", Campaspe. The Rev. Father Moore officiated, and the church was nicely decorated. The bride looked extremely nice in a dress of heliotrope figured lustre, trimmed with gimp and lace, with a wreath and veil. The bridesmaids were Miss Tuohey, sister of the bridegroom, dressed in pink lustre trimmed with lace ribbon, and Miss Green, niece of the bride, in hailspot muslin. The event caused quite a stir in the parish, and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. The newly wed couple left Elmore by the evening train for Ballarat on their honeymoon. The travelling dress of the bride was brown serge, with hat to match. A party took place in the evening at the residence of the bride's parents, and a pleasant time was passed. ___The Rushworth Chronicle May 28. 1897._____

All but Uncle Pat were born in the farmhouse on the hill. Uncle Pat, the first child was born in Bendigo, as was customary for a first birth. When my mother Julia Tuohey was born, she was the first daughter after four sons, and Lawrence's sister Julia (Tuohey) Hillman walked all the way from Mt. Pleasant to welcome the little girl who was to be her namesake. One section of the house had been a school in the district, possibly Cornella or Colbinabbin East, provided additional space for a large family.

The original homestead became the kitchen, and family room of the farm. That place could tell many a tale. At one end, there was a large open brick fireplace with two hobs large enough for a child to get close to the fire and make toast with a long handled wire toasting fork. A crane, (a movable arm on which hung the heavy cast iron pots, kettles and hot water fountain) was made in the forge by Lawrence Tuohey—one of his many utilitarian skills. He also made iron saucepan stands or whatever was needed around the farm. Often the items were fashioned out of scrap or refashioned out of broken iron wheels, gates, tanks etc. Gate hinges, joints, catches etc. were often made out of broken metal pieces from old harnesses. Many items were purchased from the sale of equipment at the Balaclava mine at Whroo. There are still items around the farm (later owned by his youngest son Charles), the handiwork of Lawrence Tuohey. Uncle Charl was very proud of the desk that was made by his father. The fowl house was also built by him. The steps at the front of the house were from the Glengarry gold-mine at Colbinabbin, and a large iron pot imported by David Mitchell for boiling beef for the manufacturing of bully beef (purchased at a Clearing Sale) was used for watering stock.

THE TUOHEY HOME AT COLBINABBIN.

The underground cellar with its damp-smelling whitewashed walls (later home for creepy crawlies and spiders) housed more relics from the past, including butter boxes, preserving jars and large iron and wooden mangles for ironing the linen.

One grand-daughter Lois Lambert recalls playing with the old family baby cradle on the side veranda, and the pram in the passageway with a box containing a long thick plait of Julia (Tuohey) Wade's hair.

The trees surrounding the farm included palm and pine trees, mulberry and almond trees, and peppercorn trees for shade. One ancient mulberry tree maybe still survives. The garden was full of geraniums, purple bouganvillia, orange tecoma, lemon scented verbena and other hardy plants.

A TUOHEY CAR -Early 1900's.

Barns were popular places for community entertainment. One even served as a roller-skating ring in the district. Lawrence Tuohey's barn was opened in 1915, and was the place where family and fund raising functions were held for Queen competitions, euchre parties, & tennis clubs. The family had various abilities as singers and musicians or as hosts or hostesses. Eileen played the violin and had a beautiful singing voice. Julia played the piano and sang songs like "Smiles". All of the boys could sing well.

Tom was particularly noted for his singing voice. Eileen and Julia entertained at various functions around Colbinabbin and nearby districts, and Eileen was still being invited to sing at weddings and other functions, even as a much older woman. I thought her voice was as good as, or may have even better than Gladys Moncrieff, had she had been exposed to the same opportunities. The family carved their heights on the barn door, and many friends carved their names into the gum trees at the top of the hill.

Uncle Pat had adult responsibilities at ten years of age. I had heard that he had to be lifted onto the wagon to take wheat to Elmore for the family. Uncle Pat and Uncle Tom had most of their early schooling at Myola State School. They stayed with relatives. The other children went to State School No. 1218, at Colbinabbin, now called Colbinabbin West. I heard that Mick Tuohey had been showman with horses in the school ground and was always racing his horse over hurdles in the school-yard, Mum said that if their parents had known half of the frivolity and tom-foolery that went on going to and from school, they would have collapsed. Boys hanging out of vehicles over moving wheels etc., or Julia scrapping in the boobialla bushes at the school with Melva Vickers.

Tuohey's had many horses at one period of time. 80-90 yearlings were bought by the butcher in Heathcote...etc. I believe that they had more than one hundred and fifty horses in the paddocks towards Cornella. Lawrence and Margaret had two registered stud horses - "Laurette" and "Netherfactor" (spelling may be incorrect). Some of the Clydesdale draught horses names that I remember were Captain, Rose, Ruby and Jack. Uncle Mick, as a young lad was plaiting the tails of some of these large and beautiful animals, when one kicked him, causing him to sustain a broken jaw and become attached to a barbed wire fence.

The horse stables had thatched roofs and split log walls. The horse troughs were hollowed out logs worn very shiny from the constant friction between the horses' mouths and the chaff during feeding.

The womenfolk kept up a constant supply of hot tea and food for the men while they working in the paddocks. Wire meat safes were hung in the trees (to keep the cooked meat cool), for the working men to help themselves.

The Tuohey brothers demonstrated discerning skills associated with stock and with horses in particular. Uncle Steve was always in command around any horse. He bred Trotters and Pacers having prominent success with "Mirthful Lass", and "Adaptor" with whom he who won the coveted Interdominion Cup in the 1960's.

In the early 1940's the regular workhorses were gradually retired. Clydesdales were the regular work horses bred in Colbinabbin and nearby districts. Teams were used to pull the farm implements.

Tuohey's also had a good stud red roan shorthorn bull "Yinbaron Bridegroom" which won many awards, including Champion, at various Shows. Their Berkshire boars and sows also won awards. The Elmore Standard October 22nd. 1921 states that there was a better show of pigs than in recent years, and the prizes went to L. Tuohey...& others.

Coursing and greyhound racing were also popular sports in the district. Tuohey's trained two whose names I remember as "Brindle" and "Bert". However there was no record of their successes.

Circumstances changed for the family after Lawrence had septic poisoning from a verdigris infected cut in his little finger. He required the care of two nurses twenty-four hours a day, and he was never to regain his former state of health. Much then depended on Gran and the boys. In 1903 Lawrence was reported to be getting the top yield of six bags of oats to the acre, when the average yield was around two bags to the acre. The year was not a good one. He held successful trials of machinery on his property, including a trial of Mitchell & Co's five furrow plough. Lawrence was a farsighted and progressive thinker. He incorporated new machinery and ideas into his enterprise wherever possible. He had such equipment as a traction engine and a threshing machine.

When Mt. Camel Station was sold about 1920, he bought the shearing plant (nickel plated) which was purchased overseas. A Mr. Begg was the Manager. Four shearing machines were driven by a small engine. The flooring boards in the shearing shed were original boards from Mt. Camel. He also purchased numerous items from the Mitchell Estate Clearing Sale that included a wire garden setting and a set of four pictures depicting gum trees and moonlight scenes.

Lawrence was a district wheat buyer for John Darling and Co. He did the books at night by lamplight, and was held in high esteem in the community. Five or six thousand pounds was often banked at any one time. He was involved with community activities, and was a member of the Colbinabbin Debating Society, Rural Fire Brigade (formed 1903), the Picnic Committee, and the Victorian Farmers Union, to name a few.

LAWRENCE TUOHEY DIED AGED 60 YEARS - 1926.

Lawrence died suddenly on the 29-3-1926 while he was coming from the milking yard accompanied by his two distraught children Eileen and Charles. His obituary described him as a man of sterling character, a very fine neighbour, and a citizen who at all times did his best to advance the district.

PATRICK TUOHEY (1898 * 1978)

3RD. GENERATION

Patrick, the eldest son of Laurence and Margaret Tuohey was born at Bendigo on the 13-8-1898. It was customary for the first child to be born in a hospital.

Patrick was baptised by Prior Fr. Coleman on 17th. April 1898, & his Godparents were Mary Comer and Thomas Cunneen. He was, as a very young boy, a tower of strength to his parents. He assumed adult responsibilities at the tender age of ten years. Perhaps, in preparation for the roles he was able to take on in his adulthood.

(Photograph: Patrick age 3-4 years)

The Tuohey brothers were keen footballers and Patrick was always regarded as a prominent and able player for Colbinabbin.

He married Ellen McEvoy (twin daughter of Edward & Ellen Mc Evoy) on the 9th. June, 1923. Pat. and Nellie (as she was known) lived at Colbinabbin from 1923 until they retired to Bendigo in 1948.

During their life on the farm at Colbinabbin, Pat ran a mixed farm and was a very keen sheep man. When he had time he would canvas the district for sheep to truck to Newmarket. He had an agency for John McNamara and Co. Melbourne.

Patrick was a keen sportsman, firstly with football in his younger days. The Tuohey brothers earned a great reputation as Colbinabbin footballers. Patrick was always regarded as a prominent and able player for his team. Then in later years horse racing took precedence. He owned a few horses that won a few races in the country.

When he retired to Bendigo, he travelled many miles to sheep-sales, where he would buy sheep and sell them in Bendigo market.

He was a Councillor for the Waranga Shire for six years, retiring when he came to Bendigo to live.

His racing interests in latter years were on the committee of the Marong Cup, to which he donated a trophy each year.

When Pat and Nellie found they could no longer cope on their own, they entered Bethlehen home for the aged, Bendigo, where Patrick died on 30-8-1979.

His widow, Nellie still resides at Bethlehem, and is now approaching her 107th. year. (1993)

THOMAS TUOHEY (1899 * 1988)

3RD. GENERATION

On the 5th. December 1899 Lawrence Tuohey set off in the horse and cart to fetch the midwife Mrs. Egan to assist his wife Maggie preparing for the birth of their second child at home on the Colbinabbin hill. Before their return, however, Thomas had arrived safe and well.

The couple's first child Patrick was born in Bendigo but Tom and the remainder of the family were born at home.

THOMAS TUOHEY (C 1920'S)

Life became very busy for Tom. He assisted his father and brothers to run the farm as well as helping to clear new land. They bred many horses and had their own dairy with a thatched roof where they churned cream to make their own butter. The boys used to camp at a new property to clear it. They used to cut hay into chaff around the district with a traction engine to tow and power the chaff cutter. Tom's father Lawrence won many prizes at local shows for champion stock.

They were among the first settlers to breed Corriedale sheep. Tom's young life was rich in many ways. The family made its own fun and in so doing provided entertainment not only for themselves but for relations and friends alike. Tom had a lovely singing voice and often obliged at these gatherings with a song. He loved a game of cards, especially euchre and cribbage.

As the family increased it became necessary to enlarge the house and Lawrence and the older boys built the extensions themselves. Sadly Lawrence sustained a heavy fall from a ladder during building operations and although he recovered he was never quite as robust again. From then on Maggie leant heavily on the older boys. Tom worked with his father on the wheat stacks at Colbinabbin. The family now numbered eight - 6 sons and 2 daughters.

Each boy had a nickname: Patrick - Dux; Thomas - Croak; Frank - Yak; Michael - Snowy; Stephen - Beaver; Charles-Puddin.

Tom's nickname Croak came perhaps from his frequent bouts of tonsillitis. Strangely, the two girls did not have nicknames- or at least ones that were ever recorded.

Football became a great love of Tom's life. All the boys played and were renowned as tough formidable opponents. Tom was Captain & Coach of the Colbinabbin Club for many years.

After completion of a new barn Tuohey's became a focal point for social and fundraising activities in the district. Dancing in the barn was the norm with Tom as M.C. He was also Secretary for many functions including those associated with the raising of money for the building of the new Cornella Church. Euchre was played in the house.

At this time still at home Tom assisted his brothers in working the farm and after his father's death on 3rd. April 1926, he continued to work on the wheat stacks, eventually becoming the Officer in Charge of the silo -a position he held for more than 40 years. He was also the receiving officer for the Oat Pool and the Barley Board.

Mick and Steve who by then were policemen in Melbourne invited Tom and Mona Egan, a granddaughter of the neighbouring Ryans to go to the Policeman's Ball in Melbourne. Tom and Mona won the 'lucky spot' that night and a romance that had started years before was rekindled and resulted in wedding bells some time later with Tom and Mona being married in St. Kilian's Church on 14th. November 1931. They made their home in Colbinabbin township where their five children were reared. Edward, Mary, Charles, Eileen and Cletus.

Tom had broad acres along the Cornella creek, 5 kilometres from the township. He farmed this land mainly grazing sheep, share cropping and in later years breeding Poll Hereford cattle.

Tom lived by the standards he had been raised to know were right and lived up to his Christian beliefs. He was looked up to and respected at Colbinabbin and district for his sound views on local public matters and energy in forwarding movements for the advancement of the district. He was an active member of the Committee for the recreation reserve which was moved to the township and took many years to develop.

His name is legend in football exploits. He had only an occasional social drink and never swore and was much loved by his family. He delighted his grandchildren with wonderful days at the farm and station.

In October 1974 he suffered a stroke on the right side which affected him physically and left his speech impaired. He accepted this with great patience. Thanks to his own indomitable spirit and strength and the wonderful rehabilitative care from the Bendigo Home and Hospital he was able to live with his wife for the next twelve years in Kennington, Bendigo. He returned to the Home in 1986, and remained in residence there until after his death on 8th. May. 1988, aged 88 years.

After a Requiem Mass at St. Therese's Church, Kennington, he was buried in the Bendigo Lawn Cemetery, on 10th. May 1988. Father Frank Marriott conducted the Requiem and Burial service and paid tribute to Tom as a man of Faith, Family, Farming and Football. A large congregation of mourners was testament to this early pioneer who knew only hard work. He was a fine character, and at all times did his best to advance the interests of his most beloved family and Colbinabbin district.

_____ Compiled by his second daughter--Eileen McGrath. _____

"Dad to me was the silo and the paddock & following football. When I think back to childhood I think of the old Chev. "Gert", two dogs Nigger and Ross, driving the sheep up the Plain road, across the creek and up to Uncle Charles' for shearing. Dad driving into Bendigo at weekends and on Wednesday nights. Going to see Uncle Pat on Sundays, also Gran at Wade's, and listening to them laugh. Cutting wood is another memory using the sledge hammer and wedges splitting what to me seemed great big logs then whacking them across with the axe sending great chips flying. Mum, would go off gathering sticks and chips, getting bogged getting out of the paddock, all with the old Chev, and that old orange coloured trailer. The rabbits were always a challenge. Digging the burrows back or twisting the length of wire around until the rabbit's fur was hooked in it. Do you remember Uncle Pat running around a rabbit until it was mesmerised, then he'd jump on it? It always seemed to be in the sandy paddock.

We had our experiences at ploughing and sowing the crops: the pride of Dad; especially one year he had a good crop. I feel we had a photo of him standing in that, I think that might have been in the "crab hole" paddock. You'd remember Mum having to drive the old Chev with the fire harrow behind to try and burn the stubble.

MARY ANN TUOHEY (1867 * 1868)

Mary Ann was the first daughter and second child of Patrick and Mary (Conroy) Tuohey. According to St. Kilian's Church, Sandhurst records, Mary Ann was born on 13th. September 1867, and baptised by Rev. Dr. Henry Backhaus on 15th. September 1867. Her entry in the Baptismal Register No. 6726/ Page 259. Her godparents were Frank Whitney and Anne White.

She died in infancy aged eleven months at Sandhurst, Victoria. Her Death Certificate Vic. B.D.M. No. 04737. She died at McCrae Street Sandhurst, and her cause of death was Diphtheric Croup certified by Dr. L Atkinson. It was interesting to discover that her Death Registration Certificate was signed by an Ann Tuohy who described her relationship as aunt; a good indication that there were possibly other family members residing in Sandhurst as we had always been led to believe. Mary Ann Tuohy was buried at White Hills Cemetery and the undertaker was recorded as Thomas Oakley.

A systematic search of the Vic. B.D.M. Records has also found the Death record of another Tuohy baby - Thomas (son of Thomas Tuohy and Mary Fahey) who died the same year at Sandhurst aged one year. Two cousins who were born and died about the same time at McCrae Street, Sandhurst, possibly also of Diphtheria: a time of great sadness for the two close families.

His farming accounts (methodically and systematically kept) over an extended number of years have been treasured and preserved by one of his descendants. This historical document is a valuable source of information about costs during those years.

MICHAEL & ELIZABETH TUOHEY of Myola By Maurice Tuohey.

I am the 4th. generation from County Galway, on the West Coast of Ireland. I regard myself to be of pure Irish stock because all of my ancestors were Irish.

My father Patrick Tuohey married Geraldine (Geddy) Harrington in 1927. Dad came from a family of three boys and four girls. My mother was one of eighteen children; the third daughter of ten girls and eight boys. Geraldine's sister Emily married Patrick's brother Alfred Tuohey.

Myola.

When Mum and Dad first married they lived in the old house known as Hennessy's, on the east side of Mt. Pleasant Creek, just north of Toohey's Road. We then shifted to the old place which belonged to the Dales, which was originally owned by the family of my mother's father. It was very old and possibly built around 1870. It had a long low kitchen with a huge fireplace at one end, and a big gate supporting a big fountain over the fire. This fountain held 10-12 gallons of hot water.

Two old bedrooms at the back of the kitchen were made of pinewood and hessian and wallpaper. The entire roof was covered with what we called shingles. Two huge old peppercorn trees grew in the backyard beside an underground cellar which also had a shingle roof. Also further over two more rooms were built, at a later date: one a bedroom and the other a lounge-room.

Not far from the house towards the road was an old barn with the wooden floor level with the ground. And still further over, across the yard was a huge old stable with a roof made of thatched straw and wooden slabs for the sides. This stable was about one chain long by a half a chain wide. Inside this stable were horse troughs made out of hollow logs, mounted on solid wooden chocks. At the back of the troughs was a corrugated iron wall and a door led through this to the chaff room, where we gathered up the chaff in a bucket and fed it to the horses in the troughs.

I can remember the wet winters at this place, and Dad's six draught horses would come in and stand around in the cold weather, and make a muddy mess in the yard. My mother was a very clean woman and this upset her very much.

Dad sent me to school at Assumption College, Kilmore in 1943.

In 1944 a terrible drought hit the land. Dad bought hay to feed the horses, but still lost some of them in the drought. His horses started to die one by one from eating grass that was too low to the ground: allowing their stomachs to fill with sand.

In 1945 I came home from school onto the farm, a lad of seventeen years, and I went fruit picking in February 1945. When I came home things were fairly destitute on the farm after the drought. Dad battled on, rearing geese and turkeys to survive. His sheep were gone and his horses were dead. At that time there were six children in the family.

Dad bought a new tractor: a little red tractor on steel wheels that cost 540 pounds. Dad also bought a McKay five-furrow plough, and we could plough eighteen acres a day with this tractor and plough.

In the August of 1945, my grandfather Michael Tuohey died. I can remember carrying his coffin to his grave. I missed him very much, as I used to spend a lot of time watching him work in his blacksmith's shop. He was a very clever man with his hands, and could make almost anything. His wife, my grandmother waws a very saintly old lady of Irish decent, and she always made sure that when I was up at her place in Myola, that I always said my prayers and learnt my Catechism; and she practically drowned me with holy water before I went to sleep at night. THOMAS PATRICK TUOHEY (1871 * 1932)

Thomas Patrick Tuohey - born 15th. November 1871 - was the third surviving child of Patrick and Mary Tuohey. It is believed that he was the first of the family to be born at Mt. Pleasant (later called Myola) where his father had taken up land after working for some years on the Sandhurst (Bendigo) goldfields.

According to the Church Records at St Kilians, Thomas was baptised on the 19th. November 1871 by Rev. Fr. D. McNab. His Godparents were Michael and Margaret Cunneen. It was interesting to note that in St Kilian's Baptismal Register -Entry No 8955, Tuohey was misspelt TUE and Conroy entered as CONRY.

Thomas would have lived in the original family cottage on the east side of Mt Pleasant Creek which was later replaced by another dwelling on the opposite side of the creek, approximately on the site presently occupied by John Tuohey (grandson of Thomas) and his family in 1988. In this home Thomas and his sisters continued to live after the death of their parents.

THOMAS TUOHEY MARRIED ETHEL CLARKE - JANUARY 1915.

In January 1915, Thomas married Ethel Clarke, formerly of Woodend, in St Kilians Church, Bendigo, and Thomas and Ethel continued living in the old home, which was later extended to accommodate their family of eight children.

MY BELOVED FATHER - Contributed by Ettie Tuohey (Sr. Mary Emerita.)

My father, known as Tom, cherished a great love and respect for the memory of his own father, as evinced by the many little stories about him which he used to related to his children. In the renovated kitchen with a wooden panel encasing and concealing a rough slab which his father had erected with his own hands in the original cottage and which Tom would not allow the carpenters to move.

Not having married until he was in his middle forties, Tom was passionately devoted to his wife and children. He seemed never to lose the wonder he experienced at being blessed with a family. His love and appreciation of his wife was shown by the gifts he would bring home to her, some of which are still treasured in the family.

He engaged in farming pursuits and purchased several pieces of land in the district, which were known by the names of their previous owners. There were Dickens's, O'Keefe's, Bibby's, Nicholas's etc. He was never happier than when driving around these properties in the buggy with some of his children on board. And he loved his horses.

THOMAS & ETHEL TUOHEY & daughter Etta -C1916.

TUOHEY HOMESTEAD - MT PLEASANT.

Of a generous and affectionate nature, he loved to do good, and many others besides his family were the recipients of his generosity, while he was noted for his gratitude to anyone who did him a service. Love for his faith was paramount in his life. Attendance at Sunday Mass, of course, went without saying and it was a familiar sight to see him on his knees, morning and night, at the old sofa in the kitchen. He was a leading parishioner at St Martin's Church, Muskerry, and took part in all affairs of the parish.

Tom had a great love of music. He had a fine voice with which he often lulled his children to sleep when they were small. He saw to it that his children were given the opportunity to learn a musical instrument. He would have been very happy to know that his three daughters made good use of this opportunity, not only by teaching music but also by their contribution to the music of the liturgy in many parishes.

THOMAS TUOHEY DIED 15-11-1932 AGED 61 YEARS.

Throughout his life, Tom Tuohey enjoyed remarkably good health, but in the late 1920's, he developed heart trouble and his general health deteriorated. He died at his home on his sixty-first birthday, leaving a young family from seven to seventeen years. He is buried in Runnymede Cemetery with my mother who survived him for twenty-nine years.

ETHEL TUOHEY DIED 26-9-1961 AGED 75 YEARS.

Ethel (nee Clarke) Tuohey was born 2-7-1886, and died aged 75 years on 26-9-1961.

Tom and Ethel laid the foundation of a solid family life for their descendants who owe them an incalculable debt of gratitude and love. May they reap an eternal harvest for the goodness of their lives on earth.

Bridget Tuohey, the fifth child and second daughter of Patrick and Mary (Conroy) Tuohey was born on 31st. January 1874 (possibly at home- Mt Pleasant). St Kilian's Register states that she was baptised by Rev. Fr. D. McNab, and her Godparents were Denis McNamara & Margaret Conroy - Entry No. 10348 / Page 397.

Bridget married Denis Healy of Ararat at St Martin's Church, Muskerry on the 5-9-1906. They were the parents of four sons and one daughter. The Healy's resided at 156 Page Street, Middle Park. Their daughter Kathleen and her husband Jim Harney still occupy the family home still rich with mementos and memories of Bridget and Denis Healy.

HEALY * * TUOHEY (Wednesday 5-9-1906)

A very pretty wedding was solemnised in St. Martin's Muskerry, on Wednesday last, when Miss B. Tuohey, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Patrick Tuohey, of Mt. Pleasant, and Mr. D. Healy, of the Victorian Railways, and at present stationed at Ararat, were joined in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. T.J. Rooney, of Elmore. Nuptial Mass was celebrated in the presence of a large congregation of the friends of the contracting parties. The bride was charmingly attired in a cream surah silk dress, richly rimmed with val lace and applique, with customary wreath and veil, and wore a very handsome brooch, set with pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet. The bridesmaids were Miss M. Tuohey, sister of the bride, and Miss Healy, sister of the bridegroom. The former wore a pretty ivory silk, trimmed with insertion, ribbon and val lace. Miss Healy wore cream silk, with val lace trimmings, and both wore pretty cream silk hats to match, and gold and pearl daggers, the gifts of the bridegroom. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a solid silver shaving bowl. The bridegroom, was attended by his brother Mr. D. Healy, as best man. The wedding breakfast was partaken at Mulcair's Railway Hotel, where the dining hall and tables were beautifully and artistically laid out with fruits, flowers, and pot plants in pleasing profusion, while the edibles and liquid refreshments were of the best. The Rev. Father Rooney presided, and in proposing the toast for the newly-wedded pair, paid a high tribute of praise to the radiant bride, who, he said, was adorned with the greatest of nature's gifts, in possessing a high character for love, sincerity and charity. The Bridegroom suitably responded. "The Bridesmaids," proposed by the Rev. Father Rooney, in a happy strain, was responded to by Mr. D. Healy, best man. "Parents" by Mr. T. O'Donnell, and responded to by Messrs. L. Tuohey and P. Healy; "Chairman", by Mr. L. Tuohey, and responded to by Rev. Father Rooney. The Rev. Father Rooney in proposing the toast of the "Host and Hostess," heartily complimented them on the highly efficient manner in which everything was carried out; responded to by Mr. T. Mulcair. A large crowd attended at the evening train, to wish God speed to the happy pair on their departure for Melbourne, where they propose spending their honeymoon. Weddings nowadays are usually very conservative, and confined to immediate friends, who, usually after the last shower of rice and confetti has been thrown, return to their homes and occupations without further enjoyment. Not so in this case. The event was a happy one. All associated with it were happy, and they made many others happy also by extending a free invitation to all to spend a social evening with them in the local hall, which, considering the short notice, was well responded to by a joyous happy throng of youth and beauty, where feet kept time to the inspiring music of Messrs. Honeychurch and J. Knight till an early hour in the morning. The bride travelled in a pretty navy poplin dress, richly trimmed with lace, and wore a Parisian hat and set of white fox furs, the gift of her sister.

BRIDGET & DENNIS HEALY

nee Tuohey.

Healy's was always a popular place for hospitality for both family and friends. It was at the Healy home that a wedding breakfast was held for niece Julia Tuohey when she married Joe Wade in 1932.

Bridget was endowed with good looks, a strong sense of humour (shared by her husband), a fine singing voice, and an ability to cope with suffering without complaint, during her many years confined to a wheelchair chronically effected by rheumatoid arthritis.

Relatives and friends constantly continued to seek out her company because of her good humour and cheerful disposition. Her husband Denis and daughter Kath were a strong support system during those trying and difficult years.

CHILDREN OF BRIDGET & DENIS HEALY.

3RD. GENERATION

PATRICK HEALY - married Doreen Coates. Pat was a popular teacher who taught in many parts of Victoria. At each school his pupils were always "the best lot of kids he ever met". He was a keen gardener and fostered such skills in his pupils. His first school was at Walwa, near Corowa. He organised school football teams, and was the secretary of the local football team.

DANIEL HEALY - married Eleanor Short. Dan's early work life was spent at Craig Williamson's Drapery, in dispatch. He went grape picking at Merbein. He then went into carpentry, eventually to become a State Government Building Inspector. He was involved as an amateur athlete at Middle Park.

LAURIE HEALY - married Joan Petersen. Laurie had ability as an amateur actor and was a great comedian. He began as a plumber's apprentice with the C.S.I.R.O. and showed great skill as an inventor. Win & Mary Costolloe taught him at one point in his primary education, and he was remembered for asking "do I point the four to the gasworks or to the beach?" when learning to write the number four.

KATHLEEN HEALY - married Jack Harney. Kath still resides in the Healy family home at Middle Park. Kath continues to inspire all who come into contact with her by her marvellous sense of fun and family tradition.

BRIDGET HEALY (Tuohey) - My Mum - By Kath Harney

Mum used to talk quite a lot about her childhood in Myola, and much of what she said corresponded with lines from "Around the Borree Log". She was the eldest girl and specialised in cooking. Julia, the next daughter was an expert laundress (and there was plenty to be done in that line) and Queen (Mary) was a very clever seamstress, so they were a pretty good team. Kate, the youngest girl was rather delicate, and we didn't hear a lot about her.

Mum would talk of the great treat of swapping her healthy sandwiches at school with someone who had treacle in their's, and of some very well thought out schemes to sneak out after dark when she grew older, like getting Jule to read the Advocate (a Catholic newspaper) to her father (who was illiterate) from cover to cover, to only be greeted with the comment "Well, I suppose Bidsy is having a great time by now!!"

They were obviously a very happy family - great sense of humour, and some very funny sayings. Many a time I was called a "big omathorn", when I did something silly, or a "poor little annashaw" if I looked a bit dejected!

She created a very happy home for us in spite of being afflicted with rheumathoid arthritis, in a wheelchair for as long as I can remember.

JULIA TUOHEY - (1876 * 1956)

Julia Tuohey was the sixth child and third daughter (second daughter to reach adulthood). She was born on 9th. May 1876 and was possibly born at Mt. Pleasant (later known as Myola). The Victorian Birth Death & Marriage Index Number was 12685, and was registered at Toolleen. Rev Dr. S. Reville baptised her on 21st. May 1876. Her Godparents were Martin Comer and Bridget Whitney. St Kilian's Church, Sandhurst Record No. 11607.

The door of the Hillman home was always open to others. A family gathering for lunch and tea after Mass on Sundays was a regular event. The various musical abilities and talents would be exercised around the piano. Even to the present day, all of the family members are renown for their congenial hospitality and their genuine concern for others.

TUOHEY * HILLMAN WEDDING - (Wednesday 29-12-1910)

On Wednesday, 29th. December, a quiet though very pretty, marriage was celebrated at St. Martin's R.C. Church, Muskerry, the contracting parties being Miss Julia Tuohey, second daughter of the late Mr. Patrick Tuohey, of Mount Pleasant, and Mr. George Hillman, eldest son of Mr. G. Hillman of Elmore. The Rev. Father Rooney performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother (Mr. L. Tuohey), was charmingly attired in a Saxe blue costume of French striped challys, finished with fancy buttons, and wore a hat to match; also carrying a white prayer book, gift of her sister. She was attended by her sister Miss Molly Tuohey, as bridesmaid, the latter being gowned in pale green silk, trimmed with cream silk applique. Both bride and bridesmaid wore gold cable bangles, gift of the bridegroom. Mr. G. Hillman (brother of the bride-groom) acted as best man. After the ceremony, the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's brother where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken..... the honeymoon was spent in Melbourne. Numerous and costly presents were received, including several cheques, the bride's gift to the bridegroom being a gold watch guard.

WEDDING: GEORGE & JULIA (TUOHEY) HILLMAN - 1910.

JULIA HILLMAN - By her daughter Eileen Hillman.

My mother and father moved into their new home early in their married life and it was not known until after dad died and mum needed to be nearer her family that she left it and came to Melbourne.

Mum led a very busy life and worked hard, for as well as her six children, dad's father and her sister Kate also lived with us, but she coped with it all and never seemed to think anything too much trouble. Our house was always an open house.

We lived just near the bridge that crossed the Campaspe river, which was the main road into the town for the country folk when they came in to shop, and as we had a very big back yard, they used to leave their horses and buggies there and of course mum would never let them go through without a cup of tea and a chat. Naturally our relatives were particularly welcome to swap the family news.

Some of the country children who went to school in Elmore also left their means of transport in our yard, and I remember on wet afternoons after school, mum would bring them inside and make up a batch of hot pancakes for all of us. She often had unexpected extras in for a meal and didn't seem ever to get ruffled by it. It was a home away from home for the young priests who came to Elmore as curates and I think they looked on mum as a second mother. There were many happy hours spent with them and our friends either playing cards or singing around the piano with my brother George at the keyboard. Mum and dad both enjoyed their cards, mostly Crib, or Euchre if we were all joining in.

Mum and Dad also taught us the meaning of the word ecumenism, before we had ever heard it mentioned. We lived next door to the Presbyterian Manse, and Mum and Mrs. Hunt (the minister's wife) were very close friends. Their family and ours spent much time playing together. They also had a lovely mulberry tree which was a huge attraction. We were also just across the road from the Church of England and Mum was always a helpful neighbour to them as well.

There was always great excitement in the house when Father Pat Tuohy was expected home on leave from the Phillipines. We all looked forward so much to seeing him, but the time was always too short before he was off again.

Our parents were also very active church workers, and in Mum's day there was plenty of money raising functions to bake for, and other forms of help to be given.

Mum's youngest sister Kate lived with us for some years, but I was too young to be able to write much about her. I know that she was often ill and in bed. Eventually looking after her became too much for mum, and when Father Pat was home on leave he arranged for her to go to live with the Good Shepherd Sisters at Oakleigh, where she stayed until her death. Of course we all missed her. One thing I do remember about her though. We children were always very nervous of thunder storms, so Kate told us to make the sign of the Cross at each flash of lightning, which kept us very busy during a bad storm trying to keep up. _____ Eileen Hillman _____

The Hillman family were renown throughout Elmore and nearby districts for their excellent singing voices. Eileen Hillman was a baby during the 1st. World War and was one of the four babies in a queen carnival as "Queen of the Golden Grain" to raise war funds.

REV FR. PATRICK TUOHEY (1878 * 1931)

Patrick, the youngest son, and third youngest of eight living children (9 born), was born on the 8th. December 1878, possibly at home at Mt. Pleasant/Myola, (as was common practice.) According to the St. Kilian' Church, Sandhurst Record No. 12825, Page 490, he was born on the 9th. December and was baptised on 15th. December by Rev. Fr. D. O'Connell. His Godparents were John Comer and Mary McNamara. His early years were spent at his birthplace working along with his parents and other family members on their farm, until 1904.

He did not respond to his calling to a religious life until aged 26 years, and from all accounts he found it a very difficult decision to make. He was at brother Lawrence and sister-in-law Maggie's place when the news was broken to his parents. He left the telling of his decision to Maggie Tuohey, while he retreated to the seclusion of the stables. From all accounts his parents responded to the news with mixed feelings. Perhaps Patrick felt that he was deserting his ageing parents. He then continued his secondary schooling at St. Patrick's College, Ballarat. On completion of his college course, he returned to the land for a time. He was unable to resist the appeal of the Holy Spirit to leave house and home, relatives and friends and all this world holds dear, to follow in the footsteps of our Divine Saviour.

He entered the Novitiate of the Redemptorist Order, at Ballarat in 1904 under the veteran and saintly Fr. Master John Cleary. He was professed on 15th. September 1905, and owing to the delay in getting permission from Rome, his profession was delayed 5 days.

A GROUP OF FR. PAT TUOHEY'S PARISHIONERS IN THE PHILLIPINES.-C1920.

REV. FR. PATRICK TUOHEY CSSR.

On the 19th. September 1905 he left Australia for Esker, the Irish House of Studies, County Galway, West Ireland (the birthplace and home of his forebears). He was ordained to the priesthood in Ireland on the 11th. September 1910. In 1912, a distinguished group of Redemptorists landed at Fremantle, 6th. February 1912. They included Patrick Tuohy.

Fr. Pat. sailed with the Fr. Provincial K. Bourke by the "Orvicto" on 25th. February, 1912, arriving in Melbourne on 23rd. October, 1912. He then went from Ballarat to New Zealand for eighteen months, and was a great success with both priests and people.

On the 14th. April 1914, he was transferred to the Philippines where he spent 8 years. He then returned to Perth by way of Waratah in early 1922, and spent a busy two years in Western Australia. He then returned to the Philippines in June 1924, extending this Apostolate to 7 years, and it was upon his return to Ballarat in early 1931 that he commenced the last chapter in his life. He died at 8.30 am. on the 22nd. of November, 1931, at the St. John of God's Hospital, Ballarat, after a serious illness which caused about three months of suffering and rapid deterioration. He was aged 53 years: a man in the prime of his life.

A Solemn Requiem Mass, concelebrated by other Redemptorists, and assisted by the boys of the Cathedral Choir was in the presence of thirty priests from Ballarat, Melbourne and Bendigo. His Lordship Bishop Gleeson gave the last absolution. And two of his brothers, a nephew and a brother-in-law stayed in the Monastery overnight, and his two sisters were the guests of Misses Crowley.

His confreres described him as a man who could adapt himself to every variety of character from the jovial outgoing person, to the pernickety, wistful individual who was also economical with words. He always wore a winsome smile that he seemed to have picked up from his native Campaspe, and that won him so readily into the good graces of people. His genial nature, his becoming roseate countenance, and his adept way of contacting and managing people, simply won all hearts in the Phillipines as in Australia and elsewhere.

He was immensely popular with the Filipino people, and brought back many gifts for his relatives given to him by these people. Two clam shells painted with scenes were often admired by two Mercy nuns at Castlemaine. At a later time they adorned the Convent parlour. There were sprays of flowers intricately carved and fashioned out of shells, wire and berries. They had adorned his altar. When he was departing, a very large group of his beloved people walked out into the water to farewell him. The ship had to stay out in the deeper waters.

One story is related, and has often been retold, that he almost lost his life when a ferocious native had him pinned down on the ground and was ready to cast his knife or spear, when Fr. Pat. had a brainwave and dropped his denture. The would-be assailant took fright and ran.

Another story, is that he and a fellow priest were riding sturdy ponies down the side of a mountain, when his companion and his horse disappeared down the steep precipice. Fr. Pat. fearing that he would find his friend and horse both dead at the bottom, was overjoyed to find them both hardly the worse for the experience.

ENTRIES IN CHURCH DIARY IN PHILIPPINES (1914-1923)

July 1914: Feast of the Sacred Heart was celebrated at Cordoba with traditional fervour. Fr. Tuohey was celebrant at a Misa Diacuno, and Fr. Mitchell preached the subject of the feast.

August 1914: Here I must supply a most important item affecting OPON Community. It was a joyous advent from Australia of Fr. Pat. M. Tuohey C.S.S.R. Father Tuohey had been long in the running for OPON, and the appointment of him to our staff at Opon was most popular. He came to Manila with Fr. Visitor Gleeson, but remained a week at Malate. The absence of Fathers from the Mission at a serious time took from the welcome, but we showed our joy when we met our old companion in scholastic debates and feats of strength and engineering. Fr. Tuohey comes with a reputation of being a very handy man. He is as willing as he is handy. We wish him all success in the acquisition of what is to each C.S.S.R. arrival, the big Cross - the Visayan tongue. After the feast of St. Roque this zealous Father accompanied Fr. Mitchell to Cordoba, where both remained till the end of October. A trip was made to Gihitingan Island, and Fr. Tuohey could contemplate and collect the treasures of the Philippine Islands. He enjoyed this picnic to Gihiting - and Cawagan Islands, and was asking for more. There were difficulties arising from Municipal School to which a protestant who had formerly been charged from Opon for proselytising, had been appointed. The fathers object to the re-appointment and the teacher was transferred temporarily. Municipal authorities considered themselves interfered with by clerical ignorance.

October 1914: Fr. Mitchell and Tuohey returned to Opon from Cordoba at the time of the death of Pope Pius X. Fr. P. Tuohey was listed among personnel of OPON foundation at the close of 1914. 22,237 Catholics, Baptisms 824, Marriages 162, Deaths 187, Communion 10,404.

July 1915: Fr. Tuohey and Fr. Superior were assisted by Fr. Mitchell at Sacred Heart Fiesta at Opon and Cordoba.

October 7, 1915: Fr. Tuohey on status, in temporary charge of Cordoba - prefect of the sick, sub-prefect of the church. Fr. Pat. sang High Mass at Mandawe in honour of the Holy Rosary, October 31st. 1915. On Sunday the priests went to Cordoba for tea. One priest took a bath in a horse trough, and frightened a horse which then bolted and knocked over an old man. His relatives took the horse and harness. Father Austin arrested - on bail, 25 pounds. Went to court - case dismissed. Fathers then withdrawn by Superior - as protest. Later, a demonstration was held for their re-instatement.

December 22nd. 1915: Fr. Mitchell went to Santa Rosa for Christmas. He was accompanied by Frs. Grogan and Tuohey who were out for the which proved enjoyable.

New Year 1916: still in Opon/Cordoba.

1917: still in Opon. Speaking of the Minister reminds me to record a sad event, the sale of Bohol, the 2nd. from his playful tricks, called a pater or baby. Something happened to him I know not what. Ask the Vets? He was sold, a faithful playful spirited horse that did good work among the rocks of Mactan. Then the cry of "Bogo, Bogo". Get a good horse from where the good horses are. We did, and if you wish to know the result, ask Fr. Tuohey as he picks himself up from the Mactan Rd. I fear they won't form another golden link in the chain of good cabayos.

New Year 1918: Still on Opon.

August 31st. 1918: Fr. Tuohey elected Prefect of the Sick and Prefect of Strangers.

New Year 1919: still in Opon - Consulter.

Aug. 28th. 1919: still Prefect of Strangers.

July 1921: Fr. Tuohey got attack of pneumonia and bronchitis on the Lilouan Mission at the end of January, but pulled through rapidly. Fr. Tuohey had to return home, but Fr. Cleary was able to hold out.

November 6th. 1920: The Fathers (Frs. Minister, Kilbride, Tuohey and Clere) returned home after a two months mission trip. They came by launch direct from Hilongos, and reached Opon at 4.30 am, and got a hearty welcome.

October 30th. 1920: The Bishop confirmed 1,004 people in one church at Opon.

FR. PAT TUOHEY WITH FILIPINOS IN SAILING BOAT.C1920.

FILIPINO STUDENTS -CORDOVA CENTRAL SCHOOL -Grade 111 -1916-17.

November 2nd. 1920: Four Fathers returned home having finished the mission work of the year, by a big mission at Bunday (Leyte). The boat stopped at Opon and put the Fathers ashore. It was about 3am., and pitchdark. "I'll go and give the alarm at the Convento", said Father Tuohey, and away he went, but only to walk right of the pier into the sea. Fortunately the tide was not in full, but full enough to break his fall. He escaped with nothing worse than a shaking and a shock.

November 21st. 1920: There was a Fiesta with Fr.'s Superior and Municipal President etc.: a great union of Church and State. The priests were few in number owing to recent legislation by the bishop about leaving parishes.

December 1921: Very soon after the Fiesta, Fr. Tuohey set out for Corella, in Bohol, and brought back an electric instalation (engine, wires, bulbs, etc.). This was the present from Fr. Sambola, a Spanish priest who had been Cura of Corella, and had to leave the place owing to unjust persecution by Government authorities. When Fr. Tuohey arrived the apparatus was already packed up. All through December Fr. Tuohey, Bro. Phillip, and some mechanics worked hard installing the plant. By Christmas, the church and Crib were lighted up by electricity. At the then of Year 1921, the status personnel included Fr. Tuohey (Præfectus Extraniorum).

January 4th. 1922: This day was appointed as a farewell day to Fr. Tuohey, who after many years of strenuous and fruitful labour in the Philippine Islands, was given a rest in Australia. We had a very cordial firewell. Every member of the community contributing something in the way of song, verse, or speech.

January 7th. 1922: Fr. Doyle (V Dec. 30th.) and Fr. Tuohey (V Jan 4th.) both left. Fr. Doyle to take up position of Superior in Malate, and Fr. Tuohey to take a well earned rest in native air. Fr. Tuohey left Manila on January 4th.

December 21st. 1923: The Visitor Very Rev. Fr. Gleeson C.S.S.R. accompanied by Fr. Rector of Opon and Fr. M. O'Callaghan arrived from Manila on the "Cebu". They had a good voyage, and owing to the calm sea were able to celebrate Holy Mass on board. We are sorry to hear that our old Confrere Fr. Pat. Tuohey whom we expected to come as "Socius" had been stricken down by typhoid fever in West. Australia. Thank God latest reports say he is recovering; hence we may have the pleasure of his help on our Visayan Missions in 1924.

In Dumaguette (Negros Island) we visited the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual(Help) Succour, where we met Fr. Pat O'Connell (84yrs. of age), an Irishman who spent some time with Fr. Pat. Tuohey in the Phillipines from the year 1927. He remembered Fr. Pat., for his humour and recalled many of his Australian "slang" sayings. He recalled that often when people came to Confession and poked their face through the curtains, Fr. Pat often pulled their noses as a humorous gesture.

We had the pleasure of lunching with the priests at the Convento, and appreciated having Fr. Pat. Martin (Superior), and Fr. Dominic Maquena as our guests at the "South Seas Hotel" for dinner on Sunday evening.

Most of this information was compiled through the kindness of Father Minehan, an Irish Redemptorist at Cebu, who lent the records from 1912 to 1924 to Joan and Tom Gastin while on their visit to the Phillipines, in April 1981. Unfortunately the records from 1924 onwards had been lost.

MARY THERESE TUOHEY (1882 * 1953)

Mary Therese was known as Molly or Queen. The name Queen, according to family sources was coined by a workman on the Tuohey property who always referred to her as "his little queen". The Victorian Birth Index No. 2255 states she was born in 1882: her birthplace, Elmore. St Kilian's Church, Sandhurst Record No. 14069 list her birthdate as 15th. January 1882 and her baptism by Rev. Fr. D. O'Connell as 29th. January 1882. Her Godparents were Thomas Conroy and Mary Whitney. Thomas Conroy was possibly related to her mother Mary (formerly Conroy).

Her son Gerard related that Mary was a competent seamstress and sewed for all of her family. She was highly skilled at fancywork and crocheting. She had musical talents, and had learned music in Goormong for a short time. She had a wonderful sense of humour and was very family orientated. There was a great lifelong bond between the three sisters - Bridget Healy, Julia Hillman and Mary Frawley with the result that their families grew up very close in all of their interests, and well bonded relationships have persisted among their children. Mary and her husband Thomas reared their family on their farm in Elmore, where son Gerard and his family live to the present day.

MARY T. TUOHEY  THOMAS FRAWLEY (Sat. 22-9-1917)

Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding wedding on Saturday, 22nd. September, when Thomas, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Frawley, of Runnymede, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mary Theresa (Molly) Tuohey, third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. Tuohey of Mt. Pleasant. The ceremony was solemnised with Nuptial Mass celebrated by the Rev. Father Ryan. Notwithstanding the quiet nature of the wedding, a large crowd was present at the ceremony, as both parties were well known throughout the district. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. L. Tuohey, wore a very becoming costume of cream gabardine and a small hat of citron shade. She wore the bride-groom's gift, an aquamarine necklet, and carried an ivory prayer-book, the gift of her sister, Miss Kate Tuohey. As the bride was leaving the church the Wedding March was capably rendered by Miss Flynn. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Frawley (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss Mary Tuohey (niece of the bride), who were prettily attired in cream coat frocks, with hats to match, and wore the bridegroom's gift - gold spray brooches. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr. M. Frawley as best man, and Mr. P. Tuohey (nephew of bride) as groom's man. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a gold mounted guard. After the ceremony, the bridal party and guests motored to the residence of Mr. George Hillman (brother-in-law), where a sumptuous breakfast was served. Father Ryan presided, and at his instance the toasts, especially that of the newly married couple, were enthusiastically honored. Amidst showers of confetti and good wishes, the happy couple left en route for the Metropolis, where the honeymoon was spent. Many congratulatory telegrams and messages were received. Many beautiful presents were received, also numerous cheques.

CATHERINE TUOHEY (1884 * 1934)

Catherine, or Kate as she was affectionately known by all, was the youngest child of Mary (Conroy) and Patrick Tuohey. The Victorian Birth Index No. 16563 lists her birthplace as Elmore in 1884. According to St Kilians Church, Sandhurst she was born on 25th. April 1884, and was baptised on the 4th. May 1884. She was of a dependent and frail nature. Julia (Tuohey) Wade mentioned that she was burnt in a fire as a young child. Lawrence, her eldest brother was closely involved with her welfare, as were other family members in their various capacities. Kate lived with her sisters in Elmore at one period of time. She was also said to have had some mild form of epilepsy, but this has not been fully confirmed.

Her early years were spent in a close family unit at Mt. Pleasant, and she was involved with all family activities. As family members married and moved away, and their own family responsibilities increased, Kate may have needed supervision or extra support that they were unable to give her. If she was an epileptic, the currently used treatments and controls were yet to be tested. Usually these people were institutionalised, and their developmental potential was often disadvantaged by such a move.

I was told that Father Patrick Tuohey (during a visit home from the Philippines) was instrumental in her becoming a permanent resident at the Good Shepherd Convent.

In her later years, she resided at the Good Shepherd Convent at Oakleigh (Chadstone) adjacent to the Chadstone (Westfield) Shopping Centre. Relatives can remember visiting her, but more detailed information is not forthcoming.

CATHERINE TUOHEY DIED 10-2-1934 AGED 50 YEARS.

Catherine (Kate) died possibly at the Good Shepherd Convent at Oakleigh aged 50 years. She is buried at Oakleigh Cemetery. Most of the graves have been removed to other burial sites, but Kate's tombstone is one of the few remaining in the Oakleigh Cemetery. The cemetery is situated in the central business district behind the Council Chambers and outside of the Oakleigh Football Ground. The inscription on her headstone reads Kathleen Tuohey, not Catherine as stated on her registration of birth.

1977 - 1ST. TUOHEY REUNION - TOOLLEEN, VICTORIA.

The first Tuohey reunion was held in 1977 on Sunday October 30th. at Toolleen Football Ground. Six hundred and sixty six (666) descendants attended, with Tuohey's from Quambatook and Ballarat being among them. Maurice Tuohey (great grandson of Patrick), and Laurence (grandson of Thomas) and his wife Elaine were the prime movers for that memorable family milestone - a hundred and twenty years after the arrival of Thomas and Patrick Tuohey to Australia.

A Mass of Thanksgiving was celebrated to mark the occasion. Rev. Father Francis Marriott P.P. was the celebrant. The Altar Servers were Adrian and Mark Tuohey, Michael Tobin and Philip Morgan. The Readers were Patrick Tuohey (Junior), Sister Mary Giovanni Tuohey and Sister Clare Griffin.

Family representatives for the Offertory Gifts were Maurice and Laurie Tuohey, Moira Dowd and Mrs Mona Egan.

For the Prayers of the Faithful - Maureen Bonney, Mick Wade, Joe Tuohey (Ballarat), Pat Dixon, and representatives from the Healy and Hillman families.

The Collectors were Gerard Tuohey and Gerard Frawley. The Users were Laurie and Leo Tuohey. The Organist was Sister Mary Emerita Tuohey.

1988 - 2ND. TUOHEY REUNION - COLBINABBIN, VICTORIA.

The second Tuohey Reunion was held as part of Australia's Bi-Centenary celebrations at the Colbinabbin Recreation Reserve on Saturday 22nd. October 1988.

Descendants of both Patrick and Thomas were well represented on the day. Some had travelled from Mildura, Taralgon, Melbourne as well as Bendigo and surrounding districts. The visitor's book in the Recreation Hall could not be signed by many who attended because of the crowding around the very interesting material that was on display associated with the district, including schools, families and other historical material. The Tuohey Family Tree, photographs, documents and other Tuohey memorabilia were an integral part of the display, not only for Tuohey descendants but for other relatives and friends in the district.

Tuohey descendants were members of the Bi-Centenary organising Committee for the Day. They also contributed financially in order to defray some of the costs of the celebration. Maurice Tuohey very kindly drove busloads of people around Colbinabbin and nearby districts to all of the places of interest associated with the name Tuohey. Family groups scattered around the football ground for a picnic lunch. As a social event, it was a great success.

TUOHEY SOCIABILITY.

Mt. Pleasant. On Friday 28th. Ult., an enjoyable dance took place at Mr. Thomas Tuohey's barn. Over 50 couples were present, and the capacity of the barn was taxed to its utmost. The barn had been tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers by Mrs. J. Tuohey, Mrs. Nolan and Miss M. Tuohey. The music was very good and was provided by Messrs. Burke Bros. McEvoy, Crowe, Rodgers, Dobinson and Miss McEvoy. Mr. T. Wilson proved an excellent M.C. The catering was in the hands of Messrs. Mulcair Bros., of Goornong, and was done in their usual excellent style. Mrs. T. Kennedy, Misses Tuohey, Miss English, Mrs. M. Tuohey, Mrs. J. Tuohey, Mrs. Burke and Miss Dollie Tuohey vied with each other in dispensing the refreshments. With such a bevy of ladies, it is needless to state that the wants of all present were courteously and promptly attended to. From a social and financial standpoint, the dance was a thorough success, and the forthcoming bazaar will appreciably benefit from the proceeds.

_____The Elmore Standard Dec. 13-1913._____

Myola Valedictory Departing pedagogue and family honored. - A fine gathering of friends and well-wishers of Mr. & Mrs. Stielow and family assembled in Mr. M. Tuohey's barn at Myola on Friday night, the 22nd. inst., to do honor to the departing guests. Over 54 couples participated in the giddy mazes' while some scores of elder pleasure seekers shuffled cards and "played" the elusive joker with intense enthusiasm. At the midnight chimes, refreshments were keenly partaken of. After justice had been done to the good things provided, Cr. J. Sexton undertook the pleasurable duty of presenting the guests with valuable mementos of their stay at Myola, consisting of a handsome 8 day timepiece, silver hot water kettle, and stand, and to Mr. Stielow, particularly, a smoker's outfit. Cr. Sexton's eulogies and good wishes were endorsed by Messrs. J. Nihill, P. McNamara, Bernie Nihill, and J. Tohill, who testified in neat little perorations to the worth of the departing residents. Mr. Stielow feelingly responded on behalf of Mrs. Stielow, self and family. The joy-shine lasted till the dawn-star paled to music supplied most tunefully and without stint by Mr. M. Burke, while Mr. W. McNamara acted as M.C., and Mr. T. Allen contributed histrionic items during the evening with marked success.

Moonlight is on the menu, and an enjoyable evening's amusement is promised at the dance in aid of the Myola State School on Friday next. Mr. P.J. Tuohey is the pushing pilot and Miss Bolding holds the key to the treasury, so a bonza return is assured for a very worthy cause. Mr. T. Allen's barn will be the sole-shrine, where the floor will be as glass and the motto for the occasion will be "on with the dance; let joy be unconfined!" and, whisper it - tickets are 2/-d, refreshments included".

There was a happy attendance of 90 couples at a social given by Mr. & Mrs. L. Tuohey, of "Fairfield," on Tuesday to celebrate the opening of their new barn, the function proved a great success. Excellent dance music (piano & violin) was provided by Messrs. E. Davey, J. Wright and Mrs. D. Stewart, whilst Mr. T. Guiton made an efficient M.C. The catering arrangements were in the capable hands of Mr. E. Larter, of Elmore, and the neighbouring ladies and gentlemen kindly assisted the host and hostess in dispensing the customary refreshments at midnight. During the course of the evening songs were rendered by Mrs. D. Stewart, Miss D. Burge, and Mr. F. Tilson, and Mr. Short contributed a recitation, each item being duly appreciated by the assemblage. Dancing was vigorously indulged in and kept up till the wee sma' hours, then the gathering was brought to a close with the singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne."

Cornella East: The "Queen of Sport's" big dance at the Half-Way Hall, Cornella, on the 24th. inst., was a pleasing success, despite the unpropitious weather. Terpsichoreans began to arrive as the sole-shrine after a heavy down-pour had ceased, and when the giddy mazes was being treaded, the scene was an animated one, over 40 couples indulging, the Misses Connolly (piano) and Mr. J. Connolly (violin); Misses Julie Tuohey and Sexton assisting. Caterer J. Towers of Heathcote, provided the bounty inner comforts for the supper. Mr. D. Clark acted as M.C. Visitors were present from Rushworth, Costerfield, Greytown &c. Secretaries Tom Tuohey and F.P. McEvoy and committee, who worked hard to assure success, are to be congratulated on providing such a very enjoyable function.

Cornella: A dance, the proceeds of which will help materially to swell the funds of the recently reformed Cornella Tennis Club, took place in Mr. L. Tuohey's barn on Friday evening, 26th. Ult. Considering the time of the year and the consequent unsuitable weather and harvest operations, there was a fine gathering of folks present. The splendid floor was in fine dancing order, and the couples danced to their heart's content, to excellent music kindly supplied by Miss N. Cloney, and ably superintended by Mr. T. Tuohey, M.C. At half-time (or thereabouts) supper was served by several willing helpers. During the evening songs, finely rendered by Miss Cloney ("Killarney") and Miss J. Tuohey ("Smiles"), were well received. The dance continued well into the early hours of the 27th., and the daylight saw the "gay ones" just rumbling home. For the success of the evening the club is specially indebted to Mr. & Mrs. L. Tuohey, the use of whose barn and piano were placed at the Club's disposal; to Miss N. Cloney, who officiated at the piano and supplied the fine music of the evening; and to Mr. T. Tuohey, who carried out the duties of M.C. ably and well.

MORE ABOUT OTHER TUOHYS

There were other Tuoheys in the district in the early selection. There was the family of John Toohey (sic) who came from Axe Creek to Myola. He and his family are in the Tuohey family photograph. This family was said to be no relation to Thomas and Patrick, but John Toohey was indeed the cousin of Thomas's wife, Mary (nee Fahey). There was also the family of Michael Tuohey.[Information - Dr. Patrick Tuohey]

Apparently Michael was also no relation, having come from County Cork, not County Galway. Michael changed the spelling of his name to conform with his more numerous neighbours. Michael had 2 sons, Jack and Dave. Dave went to the Western Australian gold-fields and did not return. Jack married Ann-Jane Carmody, and they had 3 daughters, Ann (Doll), Maree, who died as an infant, and Margaret (Mag). Doll and Mag lived in their grand-father's home at Myola until quite recent years, when they moved into Elmore. Both Doll and Mag, and Mag's husband Jack Tohill are deceased. May the Good Lord have mercy on their souls. (Contributed by Patrick Tuohey, Grandson of Thomas Tuohey, Toolleen)

There are Tuohey's at Quambatook who are related, and also at Ballarat. The Bungaree (near Ballarat Tuohey (spelt Toohey) was Joseph Toohey (1866-1898). He was the youngest son of John Toohey and the brother of Michael and Laurence Toohey of Cameron, County Tipperary according to family researcher Patrick G Tuohey. Laurence (son of Patrick) and Margaret Tuohey spent their honeymoon in 1897 with the Bungaree Tooheys. Joseph Toohey was married to Margaret Gleeson and according to the Victorian Birth Death & Marriage Index they had six daughters and four sons - Mary Ann 1864; John 1868; Margaret 1870; Catherine 1874; Joseph 1874; Emily 1875-1875; Bridget 1877; Peter Daniel 1878; James 1879; and Hanorah 1884. For all but Mary Ann, their birthplace was recorded as Bungaree or Gordon, Victoria. Mary Ann's birthplace was recorded as Melbourne.

The Ballarat(Bungaree) Tuoheys designed and built a potato digger in very early times, and the descendants of Thomas and Patrick had strong affiliations with them.

OTHER TUOHEYS/TUOHYS/TOOHEYS.

In the early Church Records at St Kilian's, Sandhurst, other Tuohys (sic) were witnesses at weddings, or godparents to some of our family members. There were three Patrick Tuohys and three Mary Conroys in the district. Two of the Patrick Tuohys were on the Sandhurst goldfields prior to the arrival of our kinfolk in C1859. They were all from County Galway. It is highly likely that any of them could have been either closely or even distantly related, through Thomas & Patrick or even through their mothers-in-law who were both formerly Touhy/Toohey (sic). The first Patrick Tuohy (son of William & Ann (O'Brien) Tuohy married Ellen Hennessy 20-5-1856. The second Patrick Tuohy (son of Jeremiah & Judith (Ryan)Tuohy) married Mary Abberton 18-7-1858. The third Patrick Tuohy/Tuohey (our forebear) married Mary Conroy 5-7-1865, and a second Mary Conroy was a witness at their wedding. A third Mary Conroy married Frederick Tully 21-7-1859. Witnesses at their wedding were Maria Conroy (may have been her married name) & Thomas Conroy.

Among the early St Kilian's Church, Sandhurst Records there were many Tuohys and Conroys.

Names of couples (1855-1879) were:- Mary (Tuohy) & Michael Egan; Denis & Ellen (Hackett) Tuohy; Patrick & Ellen (Hennessy) Tuohy; Anne (Tuohy) & Michael Dooly (she married (2) Thomas Egan; Patrick & Mary (Abberton) Tuohy; Winifred (Tuohy) & Thomas Noonan; Mary (Tuohy) & Timothy Tindley; Margaret (Tuohy) & John Conroy; Bridget (Tuohy) & George Bennett; Thomas & Catherine (Donellan) Tuohy; Michael & Anne (Flannery) Tuohy; PATRICK & MARY (CONROY) TUOHY/TUOHEY - our forebears; Anne (Tuohy) & Thomas Lyons; THOMAS & MARY (FAHEY) TUOHY/TUOHEY - our relatives; Mary (Tuohey) & Thomas Egan; Bridget (Tuohy) & Charles Cowan; Margaret Toohey & John Conroy; Patrick McCurry; Honora (Tuohy) & Cornelius McKeogh; and Johanna (Toohey) & Frederick Stebbing.

The names of John & Margaret (Tuohy) Conroy, Denis Tuohy, Ann Tuohy, and Michael & Ann (Flannery) Tuohy seem to be constantly in evidence in relation to our kinfolk. In looking at some of the cross links they could be related through the wives of the Tuohey brothers. An Ann Tuohy signed herself as AUNT on the Birth Certificate of Mary Ann Tuohy/Tuohey (1867-1868)(daughter of Patrick.

Denis and Mary (Hackett) Tuohy were Godparents of Michael Tuohy (1869)(2nd. son of Patrick). Denis Tuohy was also a Godparent for Thomas Conroy (1864), son John & Margaret (Tuohy) Conroy;, and John and Margaret was also godparent for Bridget (1874) - daughter of Patrick & Mary (Conroy) Tuohy. Patrick & Mary Tuohy/Tuohey's son Lawrence (our grandfather) was a Godparent for Edwin Francis Conroy (1880) - son of John & Margaret (Tuohy) Conroy. An Ann Tuohy was a Godparent for Marianne (1861) daughter of John & Margaret Conroy. Could she be the Ann Tuohy who described herself as aunt on our grand-aunt Mary Ann Tuohy/Tuohey's Birth Certificate?
